Subpart D—Access to National Security Information

§ 1254.40 Access to national security information.

(a) Declassification of and public access to national security information and material, hereinafter referred to as "classified information" or collectively termed "information" is governed by Executive Order 12356 of April 2, 1982 (3 CFR, 1982 Comp., p. 166), the implementing Information Security Oversight Office Directive Number 1 of June 22, 1982 (47 FR 27836, June 25, 1982) and the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552).

(b) Public access to documents declassified in accordance with this regulation may be restricted or denied for other reasons under the provisions of 5 U.S.C. 552(b) for accessioned agency records; 36 CFR 1254.36 for donated historical materials; 44 U.S.C. 2201 et seq. and 36 CFR part 1270 for Presidential records; and 44 U.S.C. 2111 note and 36 CFR part 1275 for Nixon Presidential materials.

§ 1254.44 Freedom of Information Act requests.

(a) Requests for access to national security information under the Freedom of Information Act. Requests for access to national security information under the Freedom of Information Act are processed in accordance with the provisions of § 1254.38. Time limits for responses to Freedom of Information Act requests for national security information are those provided in the act rather than the longer time limits provided for responses to mandatory review requests specified by Executive Order 12356.

(b) Agency action. Upon receipt of a request forwarded by NARA for a determination regarding declassification, the agency with declassification responsibility shall:

(1) Advise whether the information should be declassified in whole or in part or should continue to be exempt from declassification;

(2) Provide a brief statement of the reason any requested information should not be declassified; and

(3) Return all reproductions referred for determination, including a copy of each document which should be released only in part, marked to indicate the portions which remain classified.

(c) Denials and Appeals. Denials under the Freedom of Information Act of access to national security information accessioned into the National Archives are made by designated officials of the originating or responsible agency. NARA notifies the requestor of the agency's determination. Appeals of denials of access to national security information must be made in writing to the appropriate authority in the agency having declassification responsibility for the denied information as indicated in § 1254.42. The agency appellate authority shall make a determination in accordance with 5 U.S.C. 552(b). The agency appellate authority shall notify NARA and the requestor in writing of the final denials. The agency will also furnish to NARA a copy of each document released only in part, marked to indicate the portions which remain classified.
